

Students, attention!

Watch the youtube video A History of the English Language attached on the school web page below these instructions. The video has subtitles, if you need them. It is not necessary to understand every word, just the basics.

Watch it and answer the questions:

1. Put in order three invaders of the English islands from first to last: the Vikings, the Romans, the Normans.
2. In what kind of family relations are English and German as languages?
3. How many words in Modern English come from Old Norse?
4. What is the meaning of Thursday?
5. After the Norman invasion, who in England spoke French and who spoke Old English?
6. Name a French pair for words: pig, hunt, freedom, weird.
7. How many words in Modern English actually come from French?
8. Why do they say that we all quote William Shakespeare every day? (QUOTE - CITIRATI)
9. Name where ketchup, vampire and pyjamas came from.

Send it by Wednesday!
